(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1956(h) and 3551 et seq.)

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS FOR COUNT ONE
(Continuing Criminal Enterprise)

40. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendant charged in Count One that, upon conviction of such offense, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853, which requires any person convicted of such offense, to forfeit (a) any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of such a violation; (b) any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of such a violation; and (c) any interest in, claims against, and property or contractual rights affording a source of control over, the continuing criminal enterprise, including, but not limited to, the following:

Money Judgment

(a) a sum of money equal to at least approximately $800,000,000.00, the total amount of gross proceeds the defendant obtained as a result of the offense.

41. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendant:

(a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

(b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

(c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

(d) has been substantially diminished in value; or

(e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendant up to the value of the above-described forfeitable property.

(Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(a) and 853(p))

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS FOR COUNTS TWO THROUGH FIVE (Conspiracy to Import and Export and Distribute Controlled Substances)

42. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendants charged in Counts Two through Five that, upon conviction of one or more of such offenses, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853, which requires any person convicted of one or more of such offenses, to forfeit (a) any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of such violations and (b) any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of such violations, including, but not limited to, the following:

Money Judgment

(a) a sum of money equal to at least approximately $800,000,000.00, the total amount of gross proceeds the defendants obtained as a result of the offenses, for which the defendants are jointly and severally liable.

43. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

(a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

(b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

(c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

(d) has been substantially diminished in value; or

(e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p) to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendants up to the value of the above-described forfeitable property.

(Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(a) and 853(p))

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATION FOR COUNT SIX
(Use of Firearms)

44. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendant charged in Count Six, upon conviction of such offense, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(d) and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), which require the forfeiture of any firearm or ammunition involved in or used in any knowing violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 924.

45. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendant:

(a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

(b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

(c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

(d) has been substantially diminished in value;
or

(e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;
it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), as incorporated by Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), to seek forfeiture of any other property of such defendant up to the value of the forfeitable property described in this forfeiture allegation.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(d); Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p); Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c)).

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS FOR COUNT SEVEN
(Money Laundering Conspiracy)

46. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendants charged in Count Seven that, upon conviction of such offense, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 18, United States Code, Section 982, of all property involved in such offense, and all property traceable to such property, including but not limited to, the following:

Money Judgment

(a) a sum of money equal to at least approximately $800,000,000.00, the total amount of gross proceeds the defendants obtained as a result of the offense, for which the defendants are jointly and severally liable.

47. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

(a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

(b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

(c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

(d) has been substantially diminished in value; or

(e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), as incorporated by reference into Title 18, United States Code, Section 982(b)(1), to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendants up to the value of the above-described forfeitable property.

(Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(a) and 853(p); Title 18, United States Code, Section 982)
